MEMORANDUM FOR All 500th Military Intelligence Brigade Members

SUBJECT: Extremist Organizations

1. The Army's policy is to provide equal opportunity and treatment for all Soldiers, family members and DA civilians without regard to race, color, religion, sex, or national origin.
2. The goals of extremist organizations are inconsistent with and contrary to the goals and values of the Army and our Nation.
3. All Soldiers and DA Civilians must reject participation in extremist organizations and activities. Participating in any other activities that will adversely affect good order and discipline or morale within the command is also prohibited.
4. Soldiers of this command who participate in extremist organizations and their activities will be punished under the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ). DA Civilians will receive the appropriate disciplinary action. Unit commanders are required to educate all assigned personnel concerning the Army's policy and the adverse effects of their participation in violation of this policy.
